Max. Hook Height	28 1/4"
Overall Height	37 1/2"
Shipping Weight	18 lbs.

Snappy 40 incorporates the same solid quality and strength found in other Hein-Werner Snappy bipod jacks at very low cost. Features sturdy screw, precision machined with efficient square thread for reduced handle effort. Knuckle-Joint Hook has heat treated interlaced links combining great strength with exceptional flexibility. Hook conforms naturally to any bumper contour. Spreader bar keeps supporting feet apart during lifting and locks jack in folded position for compact trunk storage when not in use. Its extra strength, safety features and compact design makes the Snappy 40 an outstanding value for the passenger car owner.
